Whitchurch-on-Thames Residents Issues - September 2023 Update

PC-36	Tree on Muddy lane – Resident who lives adjacent to Muddy lane would like to have an Elm tree removed that is largely overhanging their property. As the ownership of Muddy lane is unclear, I intend to raise this to the Countryside Officer who looks after Muddy lane as a footpath. The tree is not large and I don't think it's removal should have a significant impact.	4/11/2022	Nov 2022: Checked with OCC Countryside officer and SODC planning as well as Green Team Guardian. Consensus is that the tree can be removed as land has no clear owner and no TPO. Current location appears to be a hazard to homeowners.	Open Spaces	Closed
PC-37	Resident raised a concern about a yew tree on Hardwick Road by power substation near upper narrows. They are concerned that it could be a hazard if it comes down.	10/11/2022	Sep 2023: Cllr Higley investigated. Ivy has now been killed, but tree does not appear unsafe or to be blocking the road. No further action required.	Open Spaces	Closed
