

Friday Kitchen at the Village Hall – Take 3

Jean Marc Grosfort introduces the latest challenger, Leslie Maynerd:

Welcome to Friday's Kitchen Take 3 with Leslie Maynerd (right, with Jay Raymond). Hopefully my friend Nick Brazil who is recovering well will be able to join me and help me soon, as we have three more ladies who are taking up the challenge set in January - my best efforts at filming are not very good and Nick's expertise will be welcome.

Here is the original challenge of January 2023:

Friday's Kitchen at the Village Hall

- We are proposing a new exciting challenge:
  - We would like to challenge ,
    - one person of the village to come, cook and share with us a simple, tasty, non expensive plate of food using one pot.
  - This will be filmed and put on the village web to share with the village residents.
- If you are ready for the challenge please contact Jean Marc Grosfort 07881312233 or jmgwhd48@gmail.com) to register and discuss your proposed dish.

About Jean Marc:

Jean Marc Grosfort settled with his wife Ann in Whitchurch in 2012 after 44 years in the hotel industry and 13 moves in different countries, stepping down from his executive role in the Middle East and Africa with Marriott International in 2014. Jean Marc was on the 2019 village plan committee and since then has taken on the challenge of renovating the village hall and converting it into a warm, welcoming community centre for the residents of the village. When not baking for the monthly afternoon tea, Jean Marc is working part time on a beautiful hotel project in London's Covent Garden, or playing golf, or painting, or cooking, or working on the landscape of his garden.
